

The Art of Gift Recognition

The Invitation

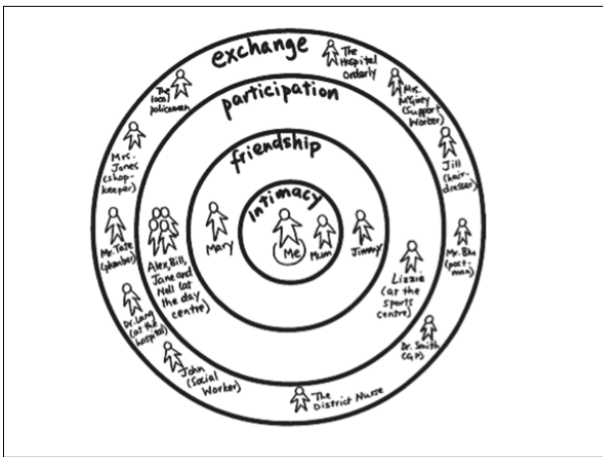

Oriah Mountain Dreamer

A gift is simply something you do, love or are interested in that helps you to connect in a meaningful way with at least one other person

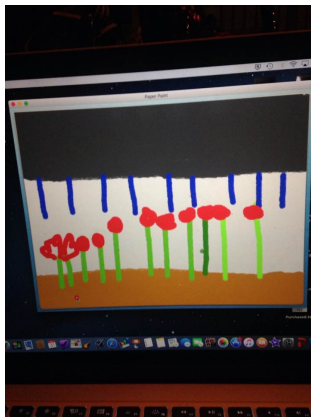

Think of someone you love and what their gifts are.

Let's make a wall!

What about you?

- * What do you love to do?
- * What are you doing when time disappears?
- * What would your mom or dad say about you? Your sister?
- * What would your love say about you?

What do you notice about one another?

Why is it important to know our own gifts?

Thank you!!
